Knowing the punishability of making a false declaration in lieu of an oath, I declare the following:

- ☐ I did not receive the parcel from the shipping company or from a third party, it was not delivered in the mailbox. In addition, I did not receive any notification about the whereabouts of the consignment. I will notify the shipping service provider immediately should I receive the package after submitting this declaration on oath.
- ☐ I received the parcel, but only after delivery it became apparent the following items had been removed from the package during transportation (please include pictures):

Place	Date	Signature

This document constitutes a legal declaration and must be completed truthfully. False statements may result in legal consequences.
